

Pre-conference of the Young Researchers' Network

November 14th 2024, Alanus University of Arts and Social Sciences

Call for Participation

The pre-conference to the annual conference of the Scientific Association for the Creative Arts Therapies (WFKT) offers students and young researchers a platform to present their work, network, and contribute to the further development of the creative arts therapies.

We call on you to submit your doctoral dissertation, bachelor's or master's thesis as a presentation for the pre-conference of the Young Researchers' Network of the WFKT!

Requirements

Completed thesis or dissertation in the field of the creative arts therapies

In individual cases, ongoing projects or protocols may also be considered.

15 Minutes

Strict time limit to allow everybody the opportunity to present their work.

Presentation

Presentations can be in German or English. You can use PowerPoint or no technical aids.

This is your opportunity to present your work to a broad audience and receive feedback from experts in the field of artistic therapies. Your knowledge, experiences and insights are invaluable for the further development and recognition of the creative arts therapies!

How can I submit my work?

You can submit your work through our website. In the submission portal, you must select "Pre-conference Short Presentation" so that your submission can be considered for the pre-conference.
